Description

An exceptionally beautiful pair of Irish country house carved gilt wood wall sconces. Crested with an eagle with spread wings, the columns are decorated with carved acanthus leaves and lion masks and terminate with a delicate spray of flowers. Each sconce has twin branching candle sconces decorated with acanthus leaves. The condition of these early 19th Century sconces is excellent, the gilding superb and both are channelled at the back to take electrical wiring if desired. A rare and stunning pair of wall sconces ready to bring Regency elegance to any interior. c.1815 Height: 42" (107cm) Width: 13.5" (34cm) Depth: 8" (20cm)
