Description

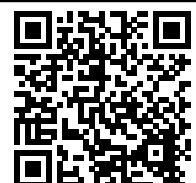

This is one of the rarest of vintage IWC watches. Authenticated by the IWC Museum indeed the museum do not have an example of this watch in their collection, they have undertaken some research and this is a copy of the information they have provided: The movement is a really rare one: it's a caliber 86. It was produced from 1922 to 1938. We think some 4500 were made. Some features of the movement: Decoration: brushed or circular graining and Geneva stripes Surface: different versions number of functional jewels: 17 or 19 type of balance-spring: Breguet-spring movement-height in mm: 3.65 movement bore in mm: 23.15 movement Ø in Lignes de Paris: 10¼ second-indication at 6:00 frequency in Hertz: 2.50 power reserve: circa 30 hours. The case is genuine. It is very rare to find such a combination. Looking at the number the watch must be dated to 1938/1939. Best wishes from Schaffhausen The case is large measuring 26mm wide x 43mm long. It has its original winding crown and the dial has been fully restored. The case has been professionally cleaned and polished. The watch has been fully serviced and is guaranteed to be a genuine IWC in all respects. It has been professio...
