Description

This pair of ornate column brass candlesticks date from around the late Victorian period, and have lovely decorative and pierced brass bases. They measure 19cm in height, with 13.5cm in diameter base, with a 7cm in diameter candle sconces. The central part is in the corinthian column style with by brass bands at the lower part, and they sit on the highly ornate circular bases. They are a good weight, and of very good quality, although the sconces are not as straight as they could be!
