Description

A wonderful little gem of a bottle in a highly sought-after Jewel-toned Emerald green colour. The top is made from solid or sterling silver but is unmarked which is common for this type of bottle. It dates to around 1870, Victorian in period and retains it's little glass stopper which fits nicely to minimise evaporation of the precious contents inside. Superb undamaged condition measuring just 2" in height. Item ID: 31295 -----
