Description

A truly stunning Victorian silver plated preserve jar stand with original etched preserve jars. Made by the famous Elkington & Co this quality piece is exquisite in design and looks. The base is raised on four foliate, scroll and stipple detailed curved feet. The diamond and stud decorated gallery is mounted on four fabulous cast animal legs with hoof feet and features acanthus, scroll and palmette designs to the top. The shaped handle echoes the decoration of the gallery and feet and is centrally mounted on a Corinthian column with beaded knops. To the base of the column is a charming armorial. The matching etched clear glass preserve jars are baluster in shape, with a raised base and flared rim. The bodies are etched with foliar and foliate decoration which also includes intricate banding and dot detailing. The cone shaped lids have a crisp point and the etched decoration is charmingly repeated from the body. A wonderful, decorative, unique piece, still usable today. Postage & Packing contribution £25.00 UK £45.00 Worldwide Condition :- Excellent, with no loss or damage to the silver plate and no chips or cracks to the glass preserve jars. Hallmark...
