Description

A really good looking Oak Coffe, early 18th century with wonderful carved rosettes and dimples in the frieze and stiles. It has a wonderful colour and patina. It is in fine original condition apart from very old strap hinges which are replacements. It has a three panelled front, panelled sides and a flat two plank top, with a very interesting and unusual plate escutcheon, this is very heavy solid coffe. Dimensions approx : 44 inches wide, 22 inches deep, 28 inches tall. This wonderful old coffe would grace any lounge, landing or hall in the home, a really good interiors piece.
