Description

A Superb William IV mahogany Linen Press with a wonderful colour and patina circa 1830. This antique linen press has been constructed with choice veneers of mahogany which have mellowed over the years to a stunning colour and patina. The moulded cornice having a gadrooned edge over two shaped mahogany doors with gadrooned edges, inset panels and twisted reeded turned columns. The doors open to reveal a newly lined interior with a fitted hanging rail. We have the three original slides if needed. The upper section, being slightly recessed back, sits over two short drawers and two longer drawers each having a crossbanded edge with recessed mahogany panels with a gadrooned edge and turned mahogany handles, central brass escutcheons and locks. This fine quality linen press is raised on elegant splay feet with a shaped apron. In excellent condition having been restored using traditional methods. The colour of this Linen press is outstanding. Having good portions this is a fine William IV linen press that will complement any household. Dimensions Width 48 ¾ inches – 124cm Height 82 ½ inches – 209cm Depth 22 inches – 56cm
