Description

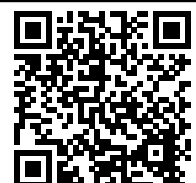

A good quality Edwardian "GRANDMOTHER" LONGCASE CLOCK in perfect working order. Of charming small size, the case is of figured "flame" mahogany, cross-banded to both the trunk door and the plinth, whilst the shaped hood features columns to either side of the door. The eight-day spring-driven movement strikes the hours and chimes the quarters, whilst the dial has cast spandrels; engraved and silvered chapter-ring and the original blued steel hands. Just 63ins (160cms) tall

Internal Ref: 1522
