Description

A Fantastic 19th century heavily carved French Gothic Dressoir. In the Renaissance taste this cupboard features some 16th century panels that have been incorporated into the canted sides. The doors depict two saints and below are two carved drawers and a pair of figure bosses that hang above a pot board. There are working locks and keys for both the doors, the left door lock tends to stick when turning the key ,but does lock and unlock. Super colour and in excellent condition.
