Description

A handsome antique silver Hebdomas pocket watch by Schild & Cie. The patents and trade marks for eight day watches were bought by Graizely Freres in 1888. In 1915, the company had a re-organisation and was renamed Schild & Cie (not to be confused with Adolph Schild, the ebauche manufacturers). Schild & Cie continued to produce eight day watches in pocket watch form, and later on in wrist watch form. This particular watch has a stem-winding movement which is working nicely. The movement has a large gilt decorated mainspring barrel upon which are details of various trade medals won by Schild. The watch measures 46mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is silver and there are Swiss hallmarks inside the case back together with the mark S&C for Schild & Cie. The case is in good condition, just a couple of shallow 'dings' to the side. The hinged case back is nicely detailed and has a cartouche to the centre... there is some scratching to the cartouche. The lens is in good condition. The off-white signed dial is in good original condition with silver painted detail and black Roman numerals, with a visible escape and balance below. The watch...
