Description

A fabulously Rare 17th century oak livery cupboard dated 1647 on the top door and two sets of initials on the bottom door indicating this was once given as a wedding present. There are 12 pierced panels, 6 either side of the doors surrounded by finely molded borders. The front panels are decorated with tulips and the side panels with unusual mirrored hearts or bows. The cupboard has a lovely cruddy dark rich patina and is in excellent condition.
