Description

Attractive domed mantle clock with silvered face and supplied by Pleasance & Harper of Bristol. Running for 8 days and striking on the half and the hour, this delightful clock is shown here in excellent condition. It keeps good time, has a mellow strike and a working key. The silvered face and numerals are bright and clear. The case is also in lovely condition, having been lightly refurbished and wax polished to show the richness of the Mahogany and the detail of the marquetry. A superb antique mantle clock.
