Description

Good early 18th century George II period solid red walnut Batchelors chest of drawers. Four long drawers with oak linings, original small steel locks and old replacement brass fretted plate handles. (originally the chest has had penny drop handles). The drawers with cock beading round the edges, the top with quarter round mouldings to the edges. The top folds over from the back and is supported by lopers that pull out either side of the top drawers. Apart from the handles the chest is in good original condition with waxed finish. This is a proper Batchelors chest rather than just a chest with a slide. SIZE; 28" wide by 12" deep by 30" high CIRCA; 1730 -1740
