Description

Wonderful twin handled Royal Worcester vase painted by E. Barker. The baluster vase is decorated with songbirds in a woodland scene. There is decorative gilding to the four footed base and fluted neck. Green Worcester mark to the base, dating the vase to 1900. Condition is very good for age with no cracks, chips or restoration noted and only slight wear to the gilding. Lovely antique piece well painted by one of the better Worcester artists. Height 20cm, width 9cm, width at top 3.8cm and maximum circumference 19cm.
