Description

A Rare French Square Walnut and Leather Revolving Piano Stool. A lovely looking piece, the seat of the stool is square rather than the usual round, it turns on an iron screw raising it from a low of 19" to 23" when at full height. The stool stands on 4 crisply turned legs and the screw mechanism is concealed in a centre turned upright. The stool is in very good working condition, the leather is pretty sound but has a slightly used shabby appearance. The stool is 14" square, and 19" at floor level, the seat is adjustable. HT158.
