Description

A very large, grand, old Victorian pine partly glazed farmhouse dresser. The top section consists of two tall and slender glazed cupboards that are either side of shelving in the centre. Each shelf has a row of hooks, that can be removed if you wish. The base section has three drawers, each with brass drop handle's. They are above two cupboards with lovely panelled doors and a open centre cupboard with a beautiful fan design - a typical design of this time. Dating from 1880, it is very nice condition throughout. Recently stripped of its original paint it is now in the bare wood ready for waxing or painting. Height 85.5", width 61", depth 17.5"
