Description

A superb early 19th Century Welsh oak bread and cheese cupboard raised on stile supports. This traditional cupboard is constructed in two parts, the top with two opening doors and a band of open spindles, stands above a lower section with two drawers and two opening doors. The sides are simply panelled. The condition of the cupboard is very good, the handles are original and the colour and patina stunning. A charming and well proportioned example of Welsh vernacular furniture offering excellent storage. Ready to place in any interior, traditional or contemporary. c.1800 Height: 75" (190.5cm) Width: 40.5" (103cm) Depth: 19" (48.5cm)
