Description

Victorian inlaid walnut wine table Here we have this burr walnut wine table made in the Victorian period. The octagonal top, veneered in fine burr walnut, and laid on solid walnut, also inlaid with boxwood and banded with amboyna panels. This table is a great height to be used as a coffee table as well as many other uses around your home. The table has lovely turned walnut legs that splay at the bottom, and end with the original china castors. The legs are joined by a turned cross stretcher and a elegant finial to the centre. 56cms across the top 56cms (22ins) 63cms high (23 3/4ins)
