Description

This Mahogany Chest of drawers from around 1800 ticks so many boxes. Boasting the original set of brass handles and escutcheons, rare in itself over this number of years, it has a good rich finish. The top is cross banded and without splits. The sides are also good as can be seen in the pictures. A really useful good looking antique chest of drawers which gives lots of useful storage. A Georgian chest of drawers on ogee bracket feet which should not be missed at this price, particularly taking into account its good condition and those original handles etc. Dont hesitate to give us a call to discuss 01565 874075
