Description

A charming inlaid satinwood bookcase, or display cabinet, of slender proportions. Very well made with attractive satinwood veneers onto a solid mahogany carcase. It is decorated throughout with ebony inlaid stringing and fitted with its original solid brass hardware. The single glazed door (lockable with key supplied) opens to access a shelved interior which can be used for holding books or displaying ornaments. To the base section there is a single drawer over a pair of cupboard doors. All standing on elegant tapering legs which terminate in stylised feet. This lovely item is offered for sale in excellent condition with a great colour and patina. Cleaned and waxed in our workshops and now ready to go straight into the home.
