Description

This fine ANTIQUE VICTORIAN TOAST RACK has four compartments divided by a decorative arch style frame supporting a central handle. The rack, made by S.W.Smith & Co in 1900, has with a rectangular shaped body / base that has rounded corners and is supported by four ball feet. The toast rack has five delightfully shaped dividers resulting four toast sections and the central divider has a shaped handle on the top. This lovely toast rack has not been engraved with any family crests or initials and one end has a full set of clearly defined hallmarks as described below. This is an exceptional good gauge silver, fine quality and is in exceptional condition and could be used as intended as a toast rack or as a superb desk top letter rack or would make a wonderful addition to any collection and would enhance any table setting. There are no visible signs of scratches or dents as would be typical of a piece of this age.  Condition  Used / Excellent There is no damage and there are no repairs.
