Description

A set of popular high back dining chairs from the early 1900s. This set in mahogany are in a Queen Anne style and sit on a cabriole leg, they also boast the rather neat little detail in the top rail. It is quite rare to find a set of these in this number, these are a set of 10 with 8 stand chairs and two carvers. They have been checked in our workshops and any loose joints have been clamped and we have cleaned and refinished the woodwork. They are now in really good condition with good colour and ready for a new home. The seats are quite useable as they are but can of course be reupholstered in your own choice of fabric to suit your colour scheme. Seat height is a normal 18ins (46 cms) and the backs on the stand chairs are 41ins (104cms) Other dimentions below at seat height for width and depth.
