Description

A small antique pine kitchen table or side table, in very nice condition throughout. Dating from 1920, recently stripped of its original paint and is now in the bare wood ready for waxing or painting. There is a small drawer with a working lock and key and lovely slender turned legs. This table would also work well as a desk. Being of a smaller size it could be used in a hall as a telephone/lamp table. Height 31", legroom height 23.5", length 39", depth 32.5"
