Description

FINE 18th century Hepplewhite design mahogany framed salon or drawing room chair. Lovely shape chair of a good size. The front is serpentine shaped with matching serpentine shaped top rail to the back. The chair stands on beautiful French type cabriole legs with original carved decoration and original castors. The chair is in very good condition, no looseness and has been very well upholstered. A very nice example of 18th century chair making. SIZE; 25" across the front, 22" from front to back and 34" high overall CIRCA; 1780
