Description

Pair of late C19th Chinese Cantonese porcelain vases. Highly decorative pair of "Famille Rose" palette enamel painted 'bottle' vases of good scale. Typical decoration featuring central multi figure court scenes, interspersed with floral and motif symbol decoration. The shoulders with moulded applied lizard decoration (some loss of gold to gilding) and the tall necks with applied guardian lion dog decoration (some minor historic damage to one dog). Excellent pair of brightly-decorated porcelain vases, which would also make striking lamp bases. H 18" W 10" D 10" China c.1870
