Description

Attractive Edwardian Oak Cheval dressing Mirror. English C 1910. This delightful dressing mirror is made from English Oak and retains a pleasant mellow mid oak colour and patination.. Dating from the beginning of the Edwardian period, it has elegance yet is sturdy and has been well maintained. The attractive swept legs are supported with original freely running brass feet for easy positioning. The central mirror shows some very light ageing, but is clear and usable. It retains a vertical position only . We have lightly refurbished this mirror and wax polished to enhance the richness of the Oak. Shown here in good showroom condition, it is ready to use. Delivery available to all destinations Please note. this item is not yet on display at M.H.A. Antiques, so please call us first.
