Description

A charming early Edwardian solid silver trinket box, unusually shaped and splendidly embossed with flora and scrolls to the lid and sides. The lid and the base have a neat fluted edge (see photos), enhancing the appearance of this box. It is hinged at the back and opens to a gilded interior, where hallmarks are very clearly visible on the base for the Birmingham Assay Office with a date mark for 1902 and the maker's marks for Clark & Sewell. There are also part hallmarks on the lip of the lid. Attention to the finest embossing work is very evident! &nbsp; Condition: This box is in great antique condition commensurate with age. There are a few tiny 'dings' underneath on the base of the box which I mention for accuracy. &nbsp; Hallmarks and maker's marks: Birmingham 1902 by Clark & Sewell. &nbsp; Measurements: Height: 2.5 cm Width: 7.1 cm Depth: 5 cm approx Weight: 32 grams approx
