Description

This beautiful cribbage board is in very good condition and dates from around the late Victorian period. The base is Olive Wood and the top has finely detailed marquetry work in the centre and around the edges. There are purpose made holes at both ends of the board where the pegs are kept, with oval wood sliding 'locks' keep them safe - see second photograph. The board measures 23cm in length when open and 8.25cm in width; closed the board is 11.5cm in length x 8.25cm wide. It is in very good condition and postage and packing within the UK mainland only is included in the price. For remote parts of the UK or abroad, please contact us for a quote for delivery.
