Description

Great suite of Old Sheffield plated candelabra and candlesticks, comprising of a pair of three-light candelabra and four matching candlesticks. In the style of the times (Regency,) the candlesticks are round based with plain stems and capitols, with gadroon decoration to the borders. The candelabra branches are, of course, detachable. One or two slight areas of copper showing but this is minimal, and to be expected. Super quality, and a really fine display; the possible variations for it's use are limitless (see our photographs;) dining table, mantelpiece, side table etc, or all at once! c.1820 Height of each candelabrum 53cm Height of each candlestick 28cm
