Description

A 1925 Elgin full hunter pocket watch with Glasgow police inscription. The watch has a stem-winding movement, grade 386, which is working nicely. The movement is fully signed and the serial number 27,258,076 dates it back to 1925. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover upon which is a 1933 inscription to ex sergeant William Nicolson from his colleagues in the Glasgow police force. The later inscription suggests that the watch had been in stock at the jewellers for quite some time. The watch measures 50mm diameter excluding the winding crown and the loop. The case is a gold filled case from the American Watch Case Company, and was originally guaranteed to wear 25 years, a great sign of quality. The case is in good condition with just light surface marking, and a couple of pin prick sized "dings" to the back. The winding crown pushes in to open the front cover. Inside there is an acrylic lens which is in good condition. Original glass lenses were often replaced with acrylic when they broke as it is a much more durable material. The signed dial is in good condition and has blued steel hands, a subsidiary seconds dial and an outer minute track. The wat...
