Description

This is a Regency antique pier mirror in giltwood and gesso dating to the early 19th century c.1820. Highly desirable natural colour and patina to the giltwood frame Superb proportions in classical form Striking, contrasting, ebonised frieze panel displays a golden foliate appliqué Twin Greco influenced columns with leaf cup mounts flank the later mirror plate Rising to the shaped pediment with beaded breakfront upper frieze Hanging wire in place ready to hang A very nice example that would look fantastic over a console table. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
