Description

This fine ANTIQUE EDWARDIAN TOAST RACK has six compartments divided by an arch style frame supporting a central handle. The rack, made by William Hutton & Sons in 1904, has a rectangular shaped body / base and is supported by four ball feet. The toast rack has seven delightfully shaped dividers resulting six toast sections and the central divider has a shaped handle on the top. This lovely toast rack has not been engraved with any family crests or initials and one end has a full set of clearly defined hallmarks. This is made from exceptionally good gauge silver, fine quality and is in exceptional condition and could be used as intended as a toast rack or as a superb desk top letter rack or would make a wonderful addition to any collection and would enhance any table setting.
