Description

A stunning early 19th century French Empire period mahogany MANTEL CLOCK in wonderful original condition. The case is most impressive, with finely-figured mahogany columns supporting the 'portico' top with superb quality ormolu capitals and mounts. The eight-day movement strikes hours and half-hours on a bell, with a gorgeous ormolu dial; blued steel "Breguet" moon hands and its original 'gridiron' pendulum with ormolu bob. All the ormolu retains its bright gilding and the quality of the mahogany veneers used is exceptional. Perfect working order and a thoroughly original clock of very fine quality. 22ins high; 11.5ins wide 5.5ins deep (56 x 29 x 14cms). *Signed to the dial: "Laine Paris"
