Description

For your consideration is this 14 karat gold filled stylish Art Deco gentleman's watch dated to 1936 by the serial number. It's been fully serviced and so comes to you in good working order. A handsome Art Deco watch in amazing cosmetic for its eighty one years. It comes with its original crocodile leather strap. Side note We did wonder how an American watch reached our blighty shores and on research we found out that during WW2 the UK bought in Hamilton wristwatches with 987 movements for our pilots. Quite a good endorsement to their quality.
