Description

This very clean and tidy mahogany dining table dates from the early 1900s. Boasting two leaves it is a good length at 93 inches, this is really a normal length for a 10 seater table. The leaves can remain in the table or be taken out if required to be smaller some times. This example, having the oval end, is a good 8 seater with a sensible width at 48 inches to get serving items in the middle. The cabriole legs have a rather nice detail with the shell pattern on the shoulder. We have a good set of 10 chairs that would match this table on our web site if 10 are required. It is really a good 8 seater as mentioned above but will fit the higher number with a bit of a squeeze, good for holidays and high days. This table is one of maybe 50 in stock, various sizes and shapes. Give us a call if you would like to discuss 01565 874075
