Description

Very elegant & useful pair of antique Swedish stools in satin birch with some fine inlay. These would look great at the end of a bed. They are in excellent condition & have just been re-upholstered, I would date them to around the 1860-80's period, although they may in fact be older. The satin birch has that lovely silky finish. They are very much Regency in design & could be from that period. Width - 25", 63 cm Depth - 14", 35 cm Height - 21", 54 cm Seat height - 16", 41 cm
