Description

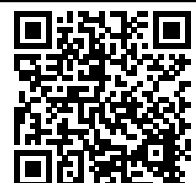

A rare and very tall early 20th Century Chinese bottle vase in vibrant yellow with dragon decoration. This superb and generously proportioned vase is in good condition with lovely decoration and good glaze. There are minor chips to the base and evidence that there may have been a small motif attached to the neck of the vase at some point. These points are minimal and do not detract from the decorative impact of this vase as they can hardly be seen, but we have endeavoured to show them in the photographs. This stunning sunshine yellow vase is a real eyecatcher, and whether displayed elevated or floor standing, it is very much a decorators piece. c.1900 Height: 37" (94cm) Width: 15" (38cm) Base: 9" (23cm)
