Description

A most versatile mahogany table from the early half of the 19th Century. Neat fine ring turned legs support the rounded corner top with the two useful drawers. These drawers have a lovely graining as can be seen in the pictures. There is a little gallery back that can take anything from pens to tinkets depending upon the useage. The two drawers can carry your personal bits and pieces. In very neat and tidy clean condition this table is ready for its new home.
