Description

A wonderful early Victorian Vinaigrette made by a rare and sought after silversmith John Tongue. The hallmark is for Birmingham 1842, together with the Queen Victoria head mark. The outside is a beautiful shape, the four corners of the lid engraved with scrollwork and the central cartouche engraved with decorative initials, I think reading M H. The underside is beautifully engraved with extensive scroll work. The catch and hinge are in perfect working order and the gilded interior a joy, with a wonderful hinged grille.
