Description

A lovely 18th century chest of drawers made from oak and fruit-wood. Its a two part chest and so it comes in two sections for easy mobility. The drawers have lovely cushion molded fronts with brass rampant lion escutcheons and ring handles. The drawers have the original linings and have had some repairs to the runner rebates in the sides of the drawers, also the side runners have been replaced as they normally are. The chest has a fantastic patina and is in excellent condition.
