Description

An exceptionally fine solid silver toast rack. Unusually designed in a most fabulous gothic arch shape, the rack has 6 compartments and sits nicely level on a good solid rectangular base, supported on four neat feet. It has a lovely handle, again in a true gothic style, all culminating in what is a most aesthetically pleasing item. Made from exceptionally good heavy gauge silver it feels a really nice weight when picked up by the handle. Very clearly defined hallmarks can be seen on the top of the base for the Sheffield Assay Office with a date mark of 1929 and Lion Passant indicating sterling silver, along with the maker's marks for the quality silversmiths: Thomas Bradbury & Son. A superb Toast Rack! Condition: This toast rack is in superb antique condition. Suitable for a collector of the finest silver! Hallmarks and maker's marks: Sheffield 1929 by Thomas Bradbury & Sons. Measurements: Height: 12.4 cm approx. Depth: 7.5 cm approx. Width: 13.7 cm approx. Weight: 226 grams approx.
