Description

Pair of C18th George III period mahogany side chairs with original needle-work seat covers. Well proportioned pair of mahogany chairs with carved open-slat backs and serpentine cresting rail tops . Good wide, broad seats crucially retaining their original needle-work covers with a good level of original colours. Raised on square moulded 'Marlborough' pattern forelegs united by an 'H' stretcher. Serpentine outline front to the seats , the back splats with a shaped 'shoe' to the rear. In decorative 'country-house' condition. The frames below the seats with interesting estate-made iron-work repairs and the webbing is distressed and loose. No breaks or repairs to the chair frames . The seat covers being rare survivors from the mid eighteenth century. H 38" H(seat) 18" W 21" D 19" England c.1760
