Description

This is an impressive French antique show cabinet dating to the late Victorian period c.1890. A fine and rare example in very good order. Crafted in choice cuts of walnut. Good colour and desirable grain. Interest in working locks and keys to the upper and lower cabinet doors. Raised on inset feet to the wide lower moulding. Imposing and practical - a fine statement item for any room of the home. Separates into three sections for ease of installation.

Lower Cabinet: Twin field panel doors with quartered raised moulding and fine central carved foliate interest. Ornate lock escutcheons with working lock and key. Single shelf within - oak panelling to rear. Twin upper drawers dressed with cast pulls - drawers oak lined and dovetailed. Fluted columns flank below an extended upper.

Upper Cabinet: Twin field panel doors sit below the generous crown. Rises over baluster form vases - with stud detailed narrow shelf. A front tri-panel back. Ornate lock escutcheons with working lock and key. Twin, adjustable internal shelves. Fine carved moulded detailing and fluted columns. A very fine piece offering useful storage and huge character. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ...
