Description

Willem Maris Dutch (1844-1910) Willem Maris was a Dutch landscape painter of the Hague School of Art. In 1862, Maris made his debut with Cows on the Heath, which may have been painted in Oosterbeek, which he visited for the first time that year. It was in Oosterbeek that he met Gerard Bilders and Anton Mauve. Maris would write about his legendary meeting with Mauve. A superb example of the work of this important 19th century Hague School landscape and animal painter Willem Maris. Signed lower left. Maris' work is highly collectable realising many thousands of pounds at auction. Please see the snapshots of auction results in the photograph section. Good condition. Painting Size, 13,1/2? x 11?
