

SA516565

Joseph Highmore portrait of a lady, Grace Loftus oil

Price

GBP 9,995

| USD $13,525 | EUR 11,695

Item Reference: SA516565

Date of manufacture: 18th Century

Dimensions

Height = 152 cm (59.8")

Width = 126 cm (49.6")

Depth = 6 cm (2.4")

Description

Portrait of a lady, traditionally identified as Grace Loftus, of Beverley hall yorkshire. Three-quarter-length, before a window. Dressed in blue and wearing a white bonnet. The painting is housed in a gilt frame signed, inscribed and dated 'Jos. Highmore Pinxt/ 1745' (mid left hand side left, seen under light) oil on canvas. The size overall being 126 x 152 cm (49.5 x 59.5 inches) whilst the painting is 97 x 118 cm (38 x 46.5 inches). In overall very good condition having been relined. There is some restoration including scattered retouchings/overpainting throughout. mainly seen under uv light. The frame is in excellent condition. There are labels to the reverse with details of previous restoration 1949 and brief history of sitter (see photos).

Joseph Highmore 1692–1780 Joseph Highmore (13 June 1692 – 3 March 1780) was an English portrait and historical painter, illustrator and author. Highmore attended Sir Godfrey Kneller's academy in London from 1713. In his early work he adapted Kneller's style of portraiture to a more realistic style. Highmore was influenced and drew his inspiration from F...

Seller Details

Country House Fine Art

Yorkshire United Kingdom

Tel: 01653 699 780 or 07771 714 575

International Tel: +44 1653 699 780 or +44 7771 714 575