Description

A charming late Victorian period burr walnut Sutherland tea table by James Shoolbred of London. Very well made in solid walnut with attractive burr walnut veneers. The flaps can be left in the down position when the table is not in use, or held up by swing out legs when being used. Offered for sale in excellent original condition with a lovely mellow colour and patina. Cleaned and waxed in our workshops and ready to go straight into the home.

Their antique desks, Victorian dining chairs and antique marquetry furniture were produced for wealthy households up to 1931. A particularly fine example of James Shoolbred antique marquetry furniture – an ornate piano by designer Henry Batley – is on display at the V & A museum, London. Established in the 1820s, James Shoolbred's Tottenham Court Road company began life as a drapers. It began supplying textiles to the furniture trade, and expanded into the stores either side, branching into interior design. By the 1870s, ...
