Description

A lovely 2 tier Sutherland tea table in solid mahogany with "butterfly" shaped flaps. Dating from the late Victorian period and very well made with lovely flowing lines in the rococo style. Each of the 2 tiers can be opened independently. Alternatively, the table can be stored with all flaps in the down position when not in use. Standing on swept cabriole legs. This practical and attractive table is offered for sale in excellent condition with a great depth of colour. Sympathetically repolished in our workshops to a very high standard, ready to go straight into the home. Dimensions (with flaps closed): Width 66cms Depth 27cms Height 79cms Across upper flaps when open 59cms Across bottom flaps when open 82cms
