Description

A good example of a country pine dresser dating from the late 19th century. The base has four deep drawers, each with white painted wooden knobs. The top part of the dresser has two glazed cupboard doors opening to reveal two generous shelves. It is set on bun feet with a planked back. It is in good condition throughout and is a clean sturdy piece of furniture. It has been thoroughly cleaned and has a nice smooth waxed finish. It is not without some signs of age and use but nothing detrimental. The glass panels are all original and as such are that lovely almost wavy antique glass. There are some historic woodworm holes towards the back of the dresser on the sides but this hasn't affected it structurally and they have been treated as a precaution. There are no major damages and the drawers all run well. It has been well maintained and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions please ask. Free delivery within 10 miles of Ashburton, Devon.
