Description

A 9K gold full hunter pocket watch by Waltham. A slim case, which would be best described as in a 'dress watch' style. An enamel dial with Roman numerals and subsidiary seconds. A topwind mechanism, signed AWW Co Waltham. This watch comes with the original paperwork from the date of its purchase. The watch also comes with the Dennison case tag which specifies the case details and features the serial number from the case. For a watch of this age to come with paperwork as this one does is highly unusual, and indicates it has been a treasured timepiece. In 1914 the paperwork specifies the watch was £7 when purchased, which equates to roughly £741 in todays money. Width 47mm
