Description

FINE and RARE design small size 19th century Scottish Wemyss ware twin handled tyg in the famous cabbage roses design. This body design with the lipped top rim and the moulded base is usually associated with the normal 3 handled tyg. This is the first example of this design I have seen with only 2 handles. The shape of the handles is also the earliest shape and definitely dates this piece to the 19th century. Perfect condition with no chips or repairs. Very faint impressed mark to the base. RARE. SIZE; 4" diameter. 4 1/4" high CIRCA; 1890 - 1895
